“Marty was a great guy. I'll always remember our talks and laughter but don't ever mess with his truck! Once his truck went in for repair and the guy used it to move stuff scratching Marty's truck. He had a fit and called the police. As it happened, my son was the policeman who got the call. It was sorted out that the guy was at fault and had to pay to fix it. Marty told on me though. He told my son that I hated that he was a policeman.

Peggy, I am so sorry for your loss, I too lost a son and husband so I can relate. If I was there I would give you a hug or a fist bump (because COVID is still around). God bless!

“ Thank you for the best wishes.

Married to Marty 59 yrs, Marty 21 yrs old, I, 19 yrs old. Barely less than children. I and our children, traveled the world with Marty, a military professional & then returned home to AR to begin a civilian work life that lasted until retirement age.

May 2008, our son was killed in a veh acc on I-40. We buried him a Saturday, 8 May. On Saturday, 8 May 2021 we buried Marty close to our son at Loughridge. May you rest peacefully now Marty.

For me I turn the page, write a new chapter. How? Since the beginning of my adult life we are tagged as Marty and Peg. I wonder in those private moments how will I be Peg w/o Marty. W/O a choice, I am about to find out.

Because when our Living God whispers our name we hear and we listen and we walk toward the sound of Light.

Sunday 9 May 2021 my first day without Marty.

It is finished.

To my family and friends like family who attended Marty's both, fun and serious life tribute, our son and I say thank you for pausing your life for this complicated simple man Martin Edgar Paulsen, JR, simply known as Marty or U Marty or Pops. Every face there is precious to me and to Marty in your own way. For my four sisters, you are wonderful. Steadfast. For my Grandchildren, you are the best and brightest. My heart smiles as I think your names. For my daughter in law, you are lovely outside and inside. For my precious son you are priceless.

and of course for me is is my boyfriend Marty.

Always Marty.

I whisper, I love you and miss you.

Peg, I am so sorry I can't travel to be there with you. You have been so good about keeping in touch with me and I wish I could reach out and hug you now. I know you have a lot to handle right now but when things slow down again, call me. I love you and I mourn the loss of the man who was my best friend growing up. As an adult, Marty always kept me on my toes but he was nothing if not true to himself. I love you and my heart, my thoughts and prayers are with you during this sad time.
