“ Mrs. Mary and Mr. Ocie were wonderful people. My mom, Evelyn Tyer, sends love and prayers to all of you. Mrs. Mary will be missed by so many people. We know she is with her Lord, with Mr. Ocie, and a host of friends and family who have gone on before her.

“ Miss Mary is in my earliest memories of attending Madison Methodist Church. She loved all of the babies of the church. When my first daughter was born, she was so proud of her, you would have thought it was her grandchild. I do not remember Miss Mary ever saying a mean word or raising her voice. She will always be a part of my memories of the Madison church. I can still see her driving that big white car to church every Sunday and sitting in the row in front of my family.. She will be greatly missed. So sorry for your loss.
