“My family and I would like to express our deepest sympathy over the loss of Mary.
May you find comfort in your loving memories and the warmth of family and friends. I love the beautiful promise at Revelation 21:4 when death and pain will be gone forever after God restores his original purpose for the earth. We will even see our loved ones again who we have lost in death (John 5:28 & 29). It is our hope that these words bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time. Once again, please accept our condolences as you deal with your loss.

ME

“Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Jackson family with these comforting words: “He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isaiah 25:8) This will include bringing back dead loved ones from the grave. As the apostle Paul wrote: “I have hope toward God . . . that there is going to be a resurrection.” (Acts 24:15) Jesus and the apostles demonstrated this by resurrecting dead ones.—Luke 7:11-16; 8:40-42, 49-56; John 11:1, 14, 38-45; Acts 9:36-42; 20:7-12. God’s healing power will make the minds and bodies of all completely sound: “No resident will say: ‘I am sick.’”! (Isaiah 33:24) I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ healingwordsforu@gmail.com. For more information about God's Kingdom promises, please visit jw.org.
