“ Our family moved to the Sherwood subdivision in 1963. Not long after that Mickey and Harold moved just a few houses down from us.

Early on Harold became a very special person for my brother Larry and I as he gave us jobs as helpers on the Harts Bread truck. Mickey became almost like a daughter to my mom. Since my mom never drove, Mickey took her and my little sisters many places. Our families bonded in those early years on Sherwood and we were fortunate to watch Harold, Jr. And Connie when they were young children.

My sister Diane and I are greatly saddened by the death of our good friend Mickey. We have such great childhood memories of her and Harold that will never fade and for the way they treated our mom with such respect.

Our condolences and prayers to the family and friends of this wonderful lady.
