“ I just read about Nancy's death. I lived in the room next to her in the summer of 79. She was so much fun to be around. We also worked on the switch board together. Wonderful girl. Prayers for her family.

“ Your family has my deepest sympathy. I know Nancy will be dearly missed. Though the pain of her passing can seem unbearable, you are not left alone. Psalm 46:1 says, God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress. So pray to Him for strength during these most difficult times. Weep to Him if you need to. He will really help you (Isaiah 41:10).
