“ All my sympathy to the family of Normadell. Not only did I consider her my second mom, she was a mom to so many of us growing up in Forrest City. My mother, Mable Dice, was one of her best friends and we enjoyed so many happy times together. One of my favorite memories is of Normadell and my Mother taking food and magazines to "shut in's" when they were themselves in their eighties. She will be missed so much. There is comfort in knowing that she is with the Lord and her loved ones in their eternal life together. Jan Dice
