“ You were my little brother and best friend. I will miss you greatly but will see you again in Heaven. You touched the lives of so many people during you life. That was evident to all by the number of friends who attended your service.

Your passing has created a big void for all but we will always remember your infectious smile and your kind heart.

As we brother's always said to each other "Love Ya"

“ Norman was brought into our life through my Dad. Those two were so crazy together, & they had some great times. They took care of eachother, were inseperable. Norman was a spark in my children's life after my Dad got too ill to be silly & play with them anymore. He loved Wayne's grilling and their 'Chevy' talks. He loved us like family, and we felt the same about him. He saw the good in everyone. Norman listened and let me cry on his shoulder when my Dad passed this summer. He was there to help me through, and we were there for him. He always brought a smile to our face. There were times he surprised my children with donuts, others he rolled in the leaves with them. Norman was special too many. He made an impression on our hearts, and is greatly missed.
