“ I am very grateful for the moments I have shared with my father-in-law or "Pappaw" as we've called him for the last 20 plus years! He called me "babe", most every time I saw him. Rylee, Grayson, and Payton love their Pappaw very much. One of Rylee's first thoughts moments after he died was...He has legs again! Grayson said he got the best birthday present ever, getting to spend it with Jesus. And Payton already misses him terribly. He will always hold a special place in our hearts. So thankful to know those of us who know Jesus will get to see him again. Thankful that I had a chance to hear about his personal relationship with Jesus before he left this earth(although it wasn't a conversation he held with many). He did share with Brent about 5 or 6 years ago. And he shared a very neat encounter he had with our God during his bypass surgery. Looking forward to seeing you one day again Pappaw. We love you!

“ RD I will never forget the time we played golf at the Forrest City CC. I never have been good at lining up to tee off, but I must say that day was the funniest ! As I lined up I will never forget you laughing as you yell out you may want to turn around and hit the ball the other direction! Due to the hole we were playing was 180 behind me. I will miss you - until we meet again keep the grass green and don't catch all the fish!
