“ Sam was one my college buddies. We went through a lot of classes together and she was a bright spot in every one of them. I was an older non-traditional student but it didn't matter. Like many people have said you could pick up a convo with her after a couple of years and it was like you had just seen her. I loved the way she loved her boys and then her step-daughter when she didn't have to. That was just the way she was. Knowing I can't text her anymore is hard but knowing her family has to be without her is unthinkable. Love you Samantha and I know I told you that a time or two. So glad of that.

“ My name is Janet Nicholas. The moment I met Samantha at the Post Office, it was instant friendship. Since I've heard of her passing, it is difficult to even enter the doors at the Post Office. She is so amazing, so genuine and such a precious soul. If there is anything I can do at all for her boys, please call me at 479-438-5201. I would love to be a part of their lives. My love for her extends to whatever I can do for her boys and her family. With love, Janet.
