“ I remember Sherry and her entire family from the restaurant days. What a super nice family. Her parents were special and I think I remember a sister that worked with her.

Sherry was always so nice, smiling and happy. She seems to make everyone around her happy.

Those times would hand 50 years ago for me but I still have happy memories of her and her family.

She will be missed by so many. Prayers for all.

“ Auntie was an amazing, loving, caring woman. She helped so many family members and friends and even strangers. She would have given the shirt off her back. I am SO sad that she has gone, but I am glad she is not suffering. Words can't express what she means to me. Even though she's gone, she's still my best friend. I love you, Auntie.
