“ We became very close as church family and all those trips to Jonesboro for her radiation treatments. I think we knew each other well after all those weeks. I cherish the serious conversations and especially the silly ones. We laughed a lot. I will miss you Terri.

“ I will truly miss Terri. She always had a smile on her face. We worked together at Food Giant in Forrest City. I know that she was a born again Christian because we always talked about our beliefs. The Bible was our connection, and I will always miss her wonderful friendship. My prayers are with all of her family. Sincerely, Jay Mann 111
