“ *Maxie and family,
We are both so sorry for your loss. Tommy fought a brave battle for several years and was admired by many who knew his attitude about his illness. May you all find comfort that he is out of pain and with our Lord.*

*Love,
Marjorie and Diana*

“ Mrs. Eldridge, I am so sorry about your husband. NOthing can prepare us for the death of a loved one. I am sorry we met at such a difficult time in both of our lives but am glad I had the opportunity to meet you and your daughter. My crusade in the future is to help people understand the transplants and the real success rate. I hope there will be a time when my confidence can be restored in UAMS but right now it is simply disappointment. Our condolences to you and all your family. (Paula Brannon's family). You are still one classy lady. Debbie
