“ I am deeply saddened by this tragedy. My warmest and most sincere prayers and condolences go out to her family. Trudi was a very out-going and vivacious woman. I use to love to listen to her spin yarns at the old Curves for Women in the late ninties. Everyone came alive when Trudi would walk into the room. I know she will be greatly missed by her husband, children, siblings and by her mom and dad. I know that Christ will wrap you all up in his love and warmth to see you through this terrible storm. Sincerley,
Crystal Hollis

“ I am so sorry to hear about Trudi. She was always such a funny and endearing soul. I made her some oldie music cd's and you would have thought I gave her diamonds. I can still hear her voice, she was soooooo country. She could always find a way to make you smile and feel better about yourself. I pray God helps you finds understanding and peace in your time of grief. Thinking of you, Buffy

“ When I was in the second grade back in 1967, we lived with my Mamaw, Mrs. Ruth Jones May. Trudi's grandmother took my brother and me to school every morning. Trudi and I played together many times. I will always remember walking up the hill to their house. My brother, Mark, and I went with the family many times to the Church of Christ. May our Lord bring you comfort at this time.

“ Charlie,
I cannot begin to express my sorrow for your loss. I remember working with both of you at Forrest Memorial Hospital. I realize what a remarkable woman she was and was proud to have known her and you...To Trudies children I hope each of you has you mothers fire and passion for life and friends and you will always remember what a wonderful person she was. God bless and keep you.

“ We choose to remember all the crazy & fun times that we had with Trudi while we were teenagers and as we got older. EVERY time that she and Dan would see each other, they would mouth off something to the other (that is the Billingsley in them!) Life has so many unanswered questions, but this we do know--God is good, His grace is sufficient and He is the answer to all our questions. We pray for His peace in all of your lives, and choose to remember the good times.
