“ My wife and I will never forget the love she showed us when we first got saved. We have things she made hanging in our house she was so talented. We will miss her dearly, but we know that we will see her again praising our Lord.

“ A beautiful soul has left us too soon! Jenny was such a wonderful caregiver to Jerry and to Jackie. I have many memories of her from my youth. She was always the strong one who loved hard and was so strong for everyone. When her mother died, she became the rock for the family. I just knew she would get to live life fully again after her caretaking role was over with the love of her life, Jerry but that wasn't in God's plan. He knows us better than we know ourselves. May God now comfort my sweet friend, Jackie now that her Jenny has gone to her eternal home, Until we meet again, we will have beautiful memories of our Jenny. 💕
