

Vivian Pauline Wall

December 23, 1923 - October 29, 2018

Vivian Pauline Wall, age 94, of West Memphis, Arkansas, passed away Monday, October 29, 2018, in Memphis, Tennessee.

Pauline Wall was born December 23, 1923, in Ozark, Arkansas, and was the daughter of Roy and Anna Dane Randolph. She was united with Christ in 1936 and was a member of the First Baptist Church in West Memphis, Arkansas, at the time of her passing. She married Francis C. Wall in 1942. Pauline graduated from Ozark High School and attended Central College for Women. She then graduated from Arkansas State Teachers College, now the University of Central Arkansas. She completed additional study at MSU in Library Science. Pauline was a proud member of the Arkansas school system for 38.5 years, teaching Senior English and later acting as a school librarian. She taught adult Sunday School classes and acted as the church librarian at First Baptist Church for many years. She travelled extensively in the United States, Europe, the Holy Land, and Egypt and visited both Canada and Mexico.

Pauline Wall is preceded in death by her husband, Francis C. Wall, and by her son, Francis C. Wall, Jr. 'Binky'. She is survived by her granddaughter, Shanna M. Wall of Memphis.

Visitation will be 12 noon Saturday, November 3, 2018, at the First Baptist Church on Missouri Street in West Memphis, Arkansas. The funeral service will be at 1:00 P.M., Saturday, also at the First Baptist Church. Burial will follow in Crittenden Memorial Park in Marion.
