“ Sue,
I am sorry to read David's death. I worked with you at the sewing factory and David was a mailman with my dad.

“Dad, I'm going to miss you more than words can say. You were always a joy to be around, with your infectious laughter and stories about the good old days, and your kind heart. We all were so blessed to know you and Sue in our lives and got to spend time with you. You two felt like family from the moment we met. I will always cherish the times we spent together, especially our visits to your home and our trips to church. You had a deep faith and a kind heart, and I'm grateful for the love and support you showed me. You had a way of making everyone feel loved and welcomed. I'll never forget your warmth, your wisdom, and your unwavering faith. Rest peacefully, Dad. We'll miss you terribly, We will carry your memory in our hearts forever. Rest easy, Dad. I'll never forget you.
Love you sooo very much! Until we meet again Dad...
