“ Willamae's Dad Calvin and my Dad, Smokey, were 1st cousins but as close as brothers and definitely hunting buddies. This meant I spent time in their home with her. She was always sweet to me even though I may have been a pesky little girl. She tried to teach me to crochet which she did so beautifully - but I never conquered it. I was so glad to see her a couple of years ago at a get together of Parker relatives at the Church of Christ in Palestine. This was shortly before Wayne passed. I was surprised to see that Willamae has now passed. She was a wonderful person beautiful both inside and out. Prayers for all of the family. She was one special lady.

“ Willamae and I grew up as best friends. Mrs Parker and Mr Calvin were 2nd parents to me, and Mrs Parker was my second grade teacher, also math and science in Junior High. Then we both married, Willamae had a graduation night date, I was just with her mother and daddy to go home. I looked up and there she was coming down the aisle with Therrel, who graduated with her. He ask me if I wanted to go to party with him. Well I went and we married 2 years later. She met Wayne and they married ..we lived in different states and did not see each other as often as we would have likes, but could see or call each other and it was like we had just talked the day before. That is what a true friend is. I loved her and always will.
