“ My fondest memory was getting to come see you and Uncle Oc. With mom and dad and my oldest son Darrel he was like 4years old and we took him down to yells pond fishing and he caught a 8 lb fish and watching him reel that big olé fish in and Aunt Wilma keep saying don't let him get away from you. Aunt Wilma thought we loss Darrel in the pond cause the fish was very strong but the help that dad gave to Darrel all was good and we ate fish that night. God blessed me with a wonderful aunt W I love you dearly and though we were miles apart you were always close to heart . I will miss you . Rest in peace
